THE LATE W. W. GORDON.

Beach and Bar. funeral of Colonel W. W. Gordon took place from St. Paul's church yesterday at noon. There was a large attendance, and the noon. There was a large attendance, and the bench and bar were present in a body. The services were very impressively conducted by the rector, Rev. Hartley Carmichael, assisted by Rev. Dr. Newton and Rev. Mr. Williams.

Mr. Carmichael read the burial anthem, which was intoned by the ohoir—squartette consisting of Mrs. Reinhardt, Mrs. Knowles, Mr. Shaw, and Mr. W. H. Grant. Dr. Newton read the lesson and gave out the brunn, "Abide With Me." The prayers were read by Mr. Williams, and Mr. Carmichael announced the hymn "Art Thou Weary?" The interment was at Hollywood.

MREIING OF THE BAR.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning there was a large meeting of the bench and bar in the rooms of the Supreme Court of Appeals. Mr. James Cashie presided and Mr. F. H. McGraw was secretary. Judge Lewis, president of the Supreme Court of Appeals, in a few touching remarks, stated that the object of the meeting was to take suitable action regarding the death of Colonel Gordon, and, on motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee on resolutions: Judge B. R. Wellford, Jr. (chairman, Judge William W. Cramp, Judge Robert A. Richardson, Judge George L. Christian, Mr. Frank W. Christian, Mr. Aubin L. Bouware, Captain Richard G. Pegram, Mr. S. V. Southall, Mr. Alexander Hamilton, Mr. Hill Carter, Mr. Alexander F. Mathews of West Virginia, General W. H. Payne, and Mr. Marshall Hanger.

The committee, after a brief retirement, reported a series of resolutions setting forth the loss the bar and the community had sustained in the death of Colonel Gordon and alluding forceby to his many sterling qualities of heart and mind. Eloquent ributes to the memory of the deceased were patid by Judges Wellford, Crump, and Lacy, and the resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Christmas Mission Offering.

An adjourned meeting of the Raptist Woman's Missionary Society was held yesterday morning at Grace-Street church to consider the Christmas offering, and the best means of raising money for this purpose. It was decided to have a mass-meeting of the various branch societies of the organization on the afternoon of Christmas-day. On this occasion there will be special exercises by some of the scholars of the intant classes from different churches, and several interesting muscal features. A collection will be taken up. The ladies of the society are very anxious to make a larger offering than usual this year. Heretofore they have contributed $500 per annum for missionary work, but it is now their wish to increase this sum to $1,000. Miss Mamie Tupper, the president-elect of the Central Committee, vice Mrs. Hatcher, resigned, delivered an address at the meeting yesterday.

committee on Grounds and Suiddings was deal in the Hustings-Court room last evening and a number of bidders for City-Hall work were present. Chairman Taylor presided with a sonorous voice and a forcible gavel.

Mr. Eigar Allan, owner of the building now occupied by the City-Hall offices, appeared before the body and stated that the city is lease of the property would expire on February 23, 1803, and after that time he would charge $1,000 a year or $100 a month for the premises. The matter of continuing the lease of the property was referred to the Council with the recommendation that the committee be instructed to rent either by the year or month, as it may deem expedient according to Mr. Allan's terms.

The bids opened first were those for the marble floor, wainscoting, and hearth-tiles for the new City Hall. There were several bidders, and the contract was awarded to John Howers, of this city, whose prices were slightly higher than were three of the others. The work is to be done by Mr. Bowers for $7,931.60 (estimated).

To Messura Brownell & Schmidt was given the contract to supply and place in position in the hall the ventilating registers, grates, &c., at a cost of $8,963. Messrs, A. B. Clarke & Sons were awarded the contract for furnishing the hardware for the building, which is to cost $5,938.
